Publicity Campaign for JNNURM by Private Media

3018. SHRI MAHENDRA MOHAN: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government having failed to make a big impact after launching the Jawaharlal Nehru National Urban Renewal Mission eight months back, have decided to take the help of a private PR firm for the publicity of the country's largest ever infrastructure improvement plan;

(b) if so, the details thereof, including the estimated expenditure involved and its present status; and

(c) the detailed reasons and justification for appointing a private media agency when there already exists an elaborate Government machinery to handle publicity under the Ministry of I & B?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI AJAY MAKEN): (a) to (c) The Jawaharlal Nehru National Urban Renewal Mission (JNNURM) was launched on 3.12.2005. In the balance period of the financial year 2005-06 i.e. upto 31.3.2006, 23 projects costing Rs.367.33 crore were approved and an amount of Rs. 90.10 crore was released. Upto 22.8.2006, 63 projects costing Rs.2559.92 crore have been approved. Amount of Rs.205.22 crore has been released. 15 workshops have been held since the launch of the mission for capacity building. Therefore, it is incorrect to say that the mission has failed.

Since community participation is the bedrock of the mission, a communication agencies needed to communicate with the community and enlist their participation for success of the mission. All community-based programmes require proper two way communication between the Government of India, State Governments, Urban Local Bodies on one hand and the people on the other
